TWO KILLED

On the Ohio River Railroad by Excur- sion—Had Gone to Sleep on the Track.

New Martinsville, W. Va., July 25.—Two men were killed and one seriously probably not fatally injured, as the result of being struck by the O. R. Division excursion train, en route from Pittsburgh early Sunday morning.

The dead: Ned Harrigan, Charles Longwell, both of New Martinsville.

The injured: Newton Kemp, New Martinsville, horribly bruised.

The men went to Sistersville Saturday evening and while in town, it is said, they drank heavily. They boarded the accommodation train late at night and stopped off at Paden's Cross in the morning. Here they found that they had missed the last train. All three then went to sleep on the tracks. It is presumed that they were badly under the influence of liquor. Sunday forenoon a farmer found Kemp in a field where he had been knocked by the train so badly injured that he could hardly move, and was unable to walk. He had been lying there since struck by the train shortly after midnight. He told the story of the tragedy.

ASSAULTED POLICEMEN

Officers Are Injured By Heavy Rock Thrown By Drunken Man Who Resisted Arrest in Glen Elk.

W. M. Richardson, B. F. Richardson and Emmet Atkinson, three lumbermen from some place in the tall and uncultured woods of the West Virginia & Pittsburgh division, tried to clean out the city police force in Glen Elk Sunday afternoon about five o'clock. They had been indulging freely in intoxicants since they left their mountain camps for Clarksburg and they were very disorderly and boisterous when Policemen White and Simms ran across them on North Fourth street just beyond the bridge.

The officers proceeded to arrest the men, but all resisted. W. M. Richardson put up a stiff scrap and intimidated that he would mop the street up clean with the policemen. He picked up a big rock and threw it at Officer Simms striking him on the helmet, causing a slight wound. The rock glanced off and struck Officer White in the breast injuring him considerably and to such an extent that it caused him to spit blood for some time afterwards. After some difficulty the officers, with the help of Officer Sullivan, who came up succeeded in getting the men to the city jail where they were imprisoned.

At the trial before Mayor Shields at the regular session of police court on Monday morning W. M. Richardson was fined on the charges of being drunk and disorderly and assaulting an officer. In default he was sent to jail for forty days. Atkinson and Richardson were sent to jail for ten days each in default of the payment of fines for interfering with policemen while in discharge of their duty.

Six plain drunks also were fined three dollars and costs. On paid up and was released while the others went over for three days each.

CITY COPPERS

Swoops Down Upon Three Men Who Were Having a Bacchanalian Orgy in An Alley and Rush Them Off to the Cooler.

Winfield Scott Ross, more familiarly known as "Bingy" Ross, Teddy Robinson and Patrick Bristol, were rudely snatched away from a Bacchanalian orgy in a Hewes street alley, near the Maier produce house Monday morning and placed in the city calaboose. All three were very badly befuddled. "Bingy" and Teddy ran across Bristol in the alleyway and asked him to chip in some money for another drink. Patrick seemed to exhibit a slight hesitancy in discharging his here and "Bingy" and Teddy tried to quell his bashfulness by the soothing use of a little forceful persuasion. Patrick's bashfulness in regard to his money possessions wouldn't quell soothingly and he so informed the two in unequivocal colloquial expression. Teddy and "Bingy" resented the stranger's uncourteous comment and both began to tell him that they did not think his verbal utterance a proper characterization of the affair. Patrick replied in kind which was in turn answered by the other two. "Bingy" and Teddy succeeded, however, in securing possession of Patrick's coin, which amounted in all to the munificent sum of $1.40, and as the three were freely indulging in argumentative discourse upon the strict ethical proprieties of the transaction, two city policemen swooped down upon them and carried them off to the cooler. There they remained until their clouded minds are sufficiently cleared to permit trial by Mayor Shields.

ROT PURE AND SIMPLE

Is That Story About Elkins' Killing Re- publican Ticket in Favor of His Father-in-Law, Henry G. Davis.

Grafton, W. Va., July 25.—A little group of Republican leaders boarded the train at Elkins Sunday afternoon bound for Charleston, to be present at the opening of the special session of the legislature. The trio comprised Senator S. B. Scott, national committeeman R. C. Kerens, of Missouri, and W. M. O. Dawson, the first and last having been the guests of Stephen B. Elkins, at Hallschuer, a derailment near Grafton, caused a temporary disarrangement of the plans of the party.

The presence of Senator Scott at Elkins, it may be stated had no connection with the fabrication circulated to the effect that Scott believed Elkins was knifing him. A member of the party stated to your correspondent that Senator Scott being at Deer Park had been invited to join Mr. Dawson and Mr. Kerens at Elkins and that politics was only a minor consideration of the visit. Senator Scott believes the knifing article published in the Register emanated from the office of the New York World. It had not been heard of at Washington.

Governor Dawson dismisses the whole thing with the words, "rot, pure and simple," and scents the idea of Democratic success in West Virginia this fall from any lack of harmony. A snap shot of these Republican leaders at Arden, where the train was held by the wreck would show Dawson, Kerens, Scott and Arthur Lee perched on the front step of a country store eagerly discussing their chances to connect with No. 55 for Parkersburg. The party left on the midnight train for that city.

Open the Park Well.
It has been very properly suggested that the county court, while turning the court house meadows into a park should open the well that is in the front yard. Some years ago it was covered over, but it is claimed that it was not filled up. That well used to be famous for its fine water, and with the expense the court could now provide the public with drinking water. It is much needed and would be appreciated in the park.
